

Event Series: Globalizing Knowledge

Global Knowledge and Transnational Crime

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16
MAIN LIBRARY, ROOM 106
12 - 1PM

In her talk, Dr. Zabyelina will discuss crimes committed by state bodies and international representatives, and particularly those who are protected by immunity from prosecution. In addition to her analysis of criminal activities, such as trafficking crimes, corruption, and sex and labor exploitation, she will evaluate the existing response mechanisms developed by domestic agencies and international organizations.

YULIYA ZABYELINA

Professor Yuliya Zabyelina teaches in the Department of Political Science in the John Jay College of Criminal Justice at CUNY. She specializes in interdisciplinary socio-legal research that combines theories and methodologies from international relations, criminal justice, and legal studies. Within her broader research on international criminal justice, she has maintained a particular focus on the countries of the former Soviet Union.
